

Volunteer Role: Little Libraries Book Processing and Restocking Volunteer

What's this role all about?

Wiping, assessing and stamping and tracking any new book donations. Organising books in book store. Taking book restock to community Little Free Library locations / liaising with volunteer stewards to restock books.

What skills do I need?

- Interest in books.
- Ability to lift boxes of books.
- Transport either via bike or car to take books to stewards.
- Ability to communicate with stewards.

How much time will I need to give?

1-3 hours depending on tasks.

Is there any training and support available?

- Instruction will be given for all tasks, including safe lifting procedures where heavy lifting is involved.

Number of time credits available per session: 1